The Mysore Labour (Administration) Bill, 1951.

Motion to consider.

The Hon'ble Sri K. T. BHASHYAM (Minister for Law and Labour).—Sir, I move :

"That the Mysore Labour (Administration) Bill, 1951, be taken into consideration."

In moving this, I wish to bring to the notice of the Hon'ble Members the necessity for this Bill. We had a Mysore Labour Act under which we had the right to appoint a Labour Commissioner to be in charge of the labour problems in the State with his staff and administration consisting of Assistant Commissioners of Labour in each division and the like. We had also there the provisions about conciliation and arbitration. It was working fairly well. Now the Central Government have extended the Trade Union Act into Mysore State by reason of which the Mysore Labour Act, in so far as it conflicts with the rest of the Central Act, has to be repealed and it gets automatically repealed. Therefore we now make a Labour Administration Bill and have brought this before this House. We have got the powers which we have under the Labour Act in addition to the powers which we have in the Central Laws so long as there is no conflict with each other. And it is for that purpose that this Bill is brought forward.

There is one more aspect which is brought out in this Bill. We had a number of Labour Associations constituted under the Mysore Labour Act. Now if the Mysore Labour Act gets repealed, those associations will also have to get themselves dissolved and fresh elections will have to take place under the Trade Union Act. We want to avoid that and say that all Labour Associations constituted under the Mysore Labour Act shall be deemed to be associations constituted under the Trade Union Act of 1926. This is found in Clause 4 :—

"4. The Mysore Labour Act, 1942, is hereby repealed :

Provided that any appointment or delegation made under the said Act shall be deemed to have been made under this Act :

Provided further that all labour associations registered under the said Act shall be deemed to be trade unions registered under the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926."

These are simple matters included in the Bill and I consider that there is nothing controversial in this Bill. I commend this Bill for the acceptance of this House.

The Mysore Warehouses (Amendment) Bill, 1951.

Motion to consider.

The Hon'ble Sri T. MARIAPPA (Home Minister).—Sir I move :

"That the Mysore Warehouses (Amendment) Bill, 1951, be taken into consideration."

Sir, this is a very small Bill seeking to make certain concessions in favour of Co-operative Societies. The Reserve Bank of India has suggested the amendment regarding certain co-operative institutions. Under Section 23 of the Warehouses Act 1951, a warehouseman is prohibited from dealing in, or lending money on, goods received by him for deposit in his warehouse. It is considered desirable to exempt co-operative societies from the restrictions imposed by this provision in order to encourage those societies engaged in advancing loans on the security of agricultural produce or in the marketing of such produce, to take up warehousing business. This Bill is intended to secure this object.

Opportunity has also been taken to amend Section 26 of the Act so as to make it obligatory for a warehouseman to show certain preferences and allow certain concessional rates to co-operative societies desiring to avail themselves of the facilities of his warehouse.

This is a very simple measure designed in the interests of the co-operative movement. Therefore I commend this Bill for the acceptance of this House.
